

CENELEC Certification Agreement (CCA)

This is a long-standing agreement between the European certification bodies for electrical products to avoid the need for retesting when applying for national certification in the different member countries.

Products covered under CCA typically include:

- Full scope of low voltage electrical equipment
- Household appliances
- Electronic appliances
- Luminaries and installation materials

Source URL: <https://www.nemko.com/product-certification/product-certification/europe/cenelec-certification-agreement-cca>